BRIGHTER ENDING, CLEARER BEGINNING

As the end of the year approaches quickly and quietly, I see the many wonderful moments we experienced and shared with our Makawao Dharma friends. One of the highlights is the 110th year celebration of the Makawao Buddhist Temple and reflecting on the many Dharma friends from the past and present who cherish and celebrate our temple as the symbol of their spiritual refuge in Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha. All the events throughout the year, for me, give meaning to this fundamental commitment and dedication to the Three Refuges.

I firmly believe that when the Three Refuges are alive and well; illuminating our heart and mind, our Makawao Buddhist Temple community evolves meaningfully in faith and devotion, commitment and dedication for the betterment of the Buddhist way in Maui.

I am reminded of an anecdote about a person who was browsing at a temple garage sale somewhat akin to our annual garage sale. While walking among the many people who were also browsing, his eyes were drawn to a beautiful vase almost hidden amongst all the items for sale. He was captivated and filled with delight. He bought it and hurriedly took it home. The vase was so beautiful that it made his living room look dull, drab and unappealing. So he bought a gallon of bright paint, a bright patterned carpet, and even stripped down and varnished the furniture. Because of the beauty of the vase, the whole room was totally transformed.

In a similar way, when the light and beauty of Amida Buddha's workings of wisdom and compassion enters and brightens our heart, the areas of our life in need of attention become quite obvious and clear. And in this oneness and wholeness with Amida Buddha I realize too that I am more deeply a person of ignorance and foolishness than I ever thought I was! The closer and more intimate I become with the workings of Amida Buddha the more obvious the contrast becomes. With the clarity of this awareness, taking refuge in Buddha, Dharma, and Sangha again affirms my resolve to live with faith and trust, devotion and commitment to the meaning and joy of the Nembutsu way.

In Gassho,
Rev. Will Masuda

OUR JODO SHINSHU TRADITIONS - Nenju or Juzu?

What is the difference with these strands of beads? Some people call them “nenju” and others call them “juzu”. Are they the same?

In some Buddhist traditions and other religious traditions, the “nenju” or “juzu” is used for counting how many times a person recites something. In the Chinese characters for juzu, “ju” means “counter” and “zu” means “beads”.

However, in our Shin tradition, since we do not use the beads as an aid for meditation or chanting, we should refer to it as a “nen-ju”: nen (mindful or thinking) + ju (beads) = beads to keep us mindful of the Buddha.

Everything You Wanted To Ask About Buddhism But Was Too Shy To Ask

Are you a newcomer to our Temple or one who needs a refresher of our basic teachings and understanding of Shin Buddhism? Rev. Will Masuda, Resident Minister of our Makawao Hongwanji, will conduct an interactive talk and discussion during the following Sunday services: Dec. 3 and Jan. 21.

Please join us to share your thoughts and questions. During these discussion times, the children will be participating in their own Dharma lessons in the Temple Social Hall. Temple service begins at 9 a.m.

Hi. Hope you are all happy and well.

Last month our temple hosted the Maui Hongwanji Council Nembutsu Seminar. About 50 were in attendance. Our resident minister, Rev. Dr. Will Masuda, invited Rev. Dr. Nobuo Haneda, Director of Maida Center of Buddhism in Berkeley, California, as our guest speaker. The messages that he delivered were very enlightening.

On November 11th (Veterans Day), I attended the “Welcome Back Home” dinner for the Vietnam Veterans. About 150 veterans attended with their wives and friends to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the ending of the war. Although I was not a combat infantryman, I was In-Country for a year of duty. At first, I wasn’t planning on going but my friend said, lets go. My unit supported the troops in the fields with supplies necessary for them to do their job. I went to the dinner to lend support to them. Many of them are now suffering from the effects of “Agent Orange”... cancer, diabetic, and PTSD. Some of my high school classmates who served in Nam are now being treated with some form of cancer.

On November 14 and 15, a couple of us (sons and daughters of the 100th Infantry Battalion, and the 442nd RTC), attended the 10th Graders classes at Kamehameha School (Maui Campus) to share stories of our dads’ experiences during World War II in Italy and France. This was my 5th time going there. Every year that I attend classes, I meet students that have relatives who were in the 100th, 442nd, or MIS (Military Intelligent Services).

You may be wondering, “Why are we going over to Kamehameha School?”. Well, did you know that prior to the bombing of Pearl Harbor, some of them were part Hawaiians with Japanese last names?

In Hawaii, there were two Army Reserve units prior to the war. Many of them were of Japanese ancestry. They were released of their duties of fear that they may fight alongside with the enemy. Later, they were allowed to return to the Army to fight for their country..... They became the One Puka Puka Battalion (100th Inf. Bn.). Later, an all-volunteer unit was formed. The 442nd Regimental Combat Team, which was made up of 2nd generation Japanese Americans born in Hawaii and the young men that volunteered from the internment camps on the mainland.

This year, the 100th Inf. Bn. is celebrating their 75th Anniversary. Next year, the 442nd RTC will be celebrating their 75th Anniversary. Photo displays and other memorabilia are being shown at the Maui Nisei Veterans Education Center here on Maui. If able, please go and see the display. Many of the men were Buddhist or of Buddhist families.

On October 22nd, Makawao Hongwanji celebrated its 110th Anniversary. How wonderful this event was. This could not have happened if it wasn’t for the first Buddhist Minister from Japan who came to Hawaii to propagate Jodo Shin Shu Buddhism.....and from the support of the Sangha that continues to spread the teachings of Shinran. For this, I am truly grateful.

I encourage all of you to attend our Buddhist seminars. To hear and learn about the Buddha Dharma.....and to support all those that bring the teachings to our temple.

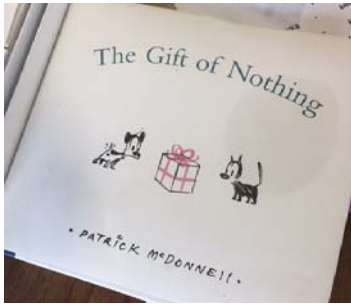

Namo Amida Butsu.

On November 5, 2017 the Maui United Jr. YBA'ers from various temples assisted in MHBT service in hopes of sharing their enthusiasm for Jodo Shinshu. Throughout the coming year they will be participating in the other Maui temples' services and would like to show their presence in our community.

Message From The Gomonsu:

It is my pleasure to be able to visit Makawao Hongwanji Mission, and join all of you here today for the first time as Monshu. On this occasion, I would like to express my sincere respect to you and our predecessors who had emigrated from Japan to Hawaii, despite such challenging times, building temples, and having transmitted the Dharma and supporting the temples until today.

The Jodo Shinshu teaching expounded by Shinran Shonin about eight hundred years ago became known and supported by more and more people during Rennyo Shonin's tenure due to his skillful propagational efforts. After the Meiji era, the teaching was spread beyond the national borders to the rest of the world, therefore making it possible for us to meet here today. This global propagation is realized because the Jodo Shinshu teaching can essentially serve as anyone's spiritual foundation without regard to time and place.

Being aware of Amida Buddha's great compassion embracing every one of us, we are enabled to accept each incident we come across as a great opportunity, and thus we are able to live our lives energetically even though life itself is filled with a variety of limitations.

However, we cannot help but stop thinking of only our own desire or convenience and find it difficult to accept things as they are. That is why it is important for us to continue listening to the Dharma and understanding how Amida Buddha's working reaches us. Through such efforts, our views and ways of living gradually changes.

In conclusion, I hope that every one of you who have gathered here today will continue your efforts in listening to and sharing of the Dharma with as many others as possible.

SHINSHU PLEDGE

1. I take my refuge in the Vow of the Buddha. Reciting his Sacred Name, I will live through life with strength and serenity.
2. I adore the light of the Buddha. I will put my effort in my work with self-reflection and gratitude.
3. I follow the Teachings of the Buddha. Discerning the Right Path, I will spread the True Dharma.
4. I rejoice in the Compassion of the Buddha. I will respect and help others and do my best for the welfare of humankind.

Message From Japanese Ministers During Gomonshu Visit:

Rev. William Masuda
Makawao Hongwanji Mission

Dear Rev. Masuda,

We hope this letter finds you enjoying the best of health in Amida Buddha's compassionate light.

Thank you very much for your warm hospitality extended to us on the occasion of the 25th Monshu Sennyō's visitation to your temple on September 7, 2017. The friendly welcome you and many others had provided, enabled us to duly complete this official visit and Gomonshu has since returned to his duties at Honawanji.

Being able to meet and hear from you and the many sangha members in person of temple activities during our visit to the temple was truly meaningful. In making the most of these experiences, we shall continue in our efforts in promoting propagation of the Nembutsu teaching.

We hope that your temple will also take this opportunity to flourish even more and continue to be a place filled with the resonating of the Nembutsu. In closing, we would like to once again extend our sincere gratitude to you.

Bring your rice to our church kitchen on Dec. 30th by 8 a.m. Rice will be steamed in the order as it comes in. Also, remember to bring containers to take home your finished products (wax paper in soda flats work very well!). Let's have some fun helping each other make mochi to bring in the new year!

MHM PRESCHOOL

Happy Holidays from all of us at Makawao Hongwanji Preschool! We enjoyed a fun Halloween family night with children wearing costumes and feasted on pumpkin pie on Thanksgiving eve. The season of sharing has begun as the afternoon children welcomed Jesse Thomas, a student at King Kekaulike High School who taught the children three songs to share with families and friends.

Just a reminder if your child is turning two of age you may contact the preschool to place your child on a waitlist.

BWA NEWS

By: Marilyn

What a year it has been? BWA ladies, you are a valuable asset to Makawao Buddhist Temple. All that you do for our temple is GREATLY APPRECIATED!!!

You've done it ALL.....New Year's Party, Sunday Family Service Refreshments, Dharma School, Hanamatsuri & Fujimatsuri, Esshini & Kakushinni Day, Pickled Peach & Sanbaizuke, Garage Sale & Bazaar, Obon, General Clean-up days, Ho'onko, Gotan-e, Etaikyo, Higan; Hale Makua, Kula Hospital, & Roselani Visitation, Craft Class, Exercise Class, Senior Program & Project Dana, Parents' Day & Grandparents' Day, Peace Day, 110th Anniversary, Seminars, Social Concerns Day, Winter Garage Sale Bodhi Day, Mochi Tsuki, New Years' Eve and the LIST GOES ON. All we can say is THANK YOU, ARIGATO, MAHALO!!!

On November 4, the 63rd Maui United BWA General Assembly was held at Makawao with Diane Kosaka presiding. There was a general meeting with reports & discussion on goals of the BWA, 2018 officers were installed & a memorial service was held. Embrace Change-Open Communication was the theme as we learned about Islam from our guest speaker Emna Maksud. In the panel discussion with two generations of Muslim women, we heard about how important their religion is to them and how it affects their daily lives, & how their perspectives of life and desires for their family are universal to all women. When they did a hijab (head covering) demonstration and traditional wedding presentation, the men present were asked to leave the room. The desserts and food shared was delicious; we only wish we had had more time to share our cultures.

This year we welcomed new members Christy Vale, Denise Fleetham, & Sherri Okuni. We honor and give thanks to our deceased members Ruth Magarifuji, Narue Nitahara, Sachiko Smith, & Gladys Ushijima.

In the spirit of universal sisterhood, each of us is part of the world peace movement by dispelling our ignorance through Wisdom and Compassion, and compassionately sharing our understanding with others.

We continue to share with each other as we embrace our Buddhist Dharma. Thank You again for all you do, as we look forward to more opportunities to serve Makawao Buddhist Temple in 2018.

WEEKLY CHANTING: Join us at Makawao Hongwanji Buddhist Temple for chanting on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 8:30 a.m. inside our Temple. Dharma discussions and sharing to follow.
