MINISTER'S MESSAGE

November is the month we all know for Thanksgiving Day. It is usually the last Thursday of the month, for some reason it is always on a Thursday and not any other day of the week. I tried to research the reason why Thanksgiving Day is never on any other day of the week except Thursday but couldn't clearly find the answer.

Some interesting trivia about Thanksgiving is that the first Thanksgiving day that the Pilgrims celebrated occurred in mid October, not November and that there are several myths associated with the celebration of the first Thanksgiving Day, from the myth that the native American Indians were invited to sit and eat with the colonist – they actually just walked in, came to the feast out of curiosity, drawn by the gathering of people at the site, - to the type of foods that were shared on that first Thanksgiving. Contrary to what most people think, there were no pumpkin pies, cranberry sauce, sweet potatoes and even that iconic symbol of Thanksgiving, the turkey was not on the menu for that first Thanksgiving, venison or deer meat was the main fare, and although there were other fowl that were served, the traditional main dish, turkey was not served at all.

But who really cares what the food was at that time? The more important thing was that such a tradition of setting aside a day in late November for expressing gratitude became part of the culture of this great country, although, unfortunately, its real significance or meaning has given way to gross commercialism and overindulgence. Gratitude operates through a universal law that governs the life of human beings. Almost all known languages in the world has a way of expressing gratitude and the very action of gratitude sets off a reaction of receiving. It's the same as the fundamental law of motion in the universe, discovered by the scientist Sir Isaac Newton that says: "Every action always has an opposite and equal reaction." Every action of giving thanks always causes an opposite reaction of receiving. And gratitude is viewed as a prized human propensity in all the world's major religious traditions.

Especially to us who belong to the Jodo Shinshu Pure Land tradition of Buddhism, our core practice is putting our hands together in gassho and reciting the Name of Amida Buddha, as an expression of gratitude for the Wisdom and Compassion that is manifested to us in many ways through the workings of natural laws. Gratitude for providing the means for all unenlightened sentient beings to transcend the realm of samsaric existence through the power of the Primal Vow, guaranteeing birth in the Pure Land where suffering no longer exists. When Amida's Light of Wisdom enables us to understand interdependence, of the law of cause and effect and dependent origination, this gratitude is then extended to all beings who have made our continuing existence in the present moment possible.

This thanksgiving day, let us reflect deeply on the many things that we can be grateful for and humbly accept the many gifts and blessings we receive in everyday life. To us Shin Buddhist, Thanksgiving day is not just once a year in November but every day of our lives is thanksgiving day. We thank our ancestors, departed loved ones, friends, co-workers, fellow temple goers and people outside our circle of family and friends, who, through their efforts and sacrifice, have enabled this precious gift we have received called life to continue. When we sit down and dig in the abundant feast we prepare for this Thanksgiving Day, let us also not forget the animals and plants that gave up their lives to sustain ours and humbly acknowledge and receive their sacrifice by putting our hands in gassho, and saying: Itadakimasu! To all the Makawao Hongwanji members and readers of our newsletter, a Happy Thanksgiving Day to you all!
Namu Amida Butsu!

MINISTER'S RESIDENCE GETS NEW ROOF

A few months ago, Sensei's roof was noted to have some leaks during the rains. Michael asked Benton Barrows of Tops Roofing to look into what could be done to stop the leaks. Due to the age of the roof and the existing fiber cement roof shingles no longer being available, it was recommended that the building be reroofed with asphalt shingle roofing similar to the roofing on the temple and kitchen buildings. The reroofing was completed last month by Tops Roofing.

Maui Stamps Closing November 30

A reminder to members and friends, Maui Stamps is closing on November 30 after years of providing the community with redemption gifts and cash payment to Makawao Hongwanji. In the past, these funds have been used by MHM for many improvements and equipment in the office, kitchen, and around the temple facilities. Our members have been great in turning in all their stamps and Senior Program participants and Betsy Matsu-mura has been sticking the stamps in books to be redeemed for all these years. A big mahalo to all you "stamp collectors" and "stamp stickers". And thank you Maui Stamps for the program.

As of Oct.9, we have accumulated $4,153 in our account from the stamp books we turned in recently. If you or any of your friends want have stamps that you do not want, we would appreciate if you could turn them in to the temple office.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

We can be thankful that for the most part, Hurricane Ana only delivered some rain, thunder, and lightning. It could have been a lot worse. The new roof to the sensei’s house was completed just in time. Did you that I’m a really good weather forecaster? For instance, I know what the weather is going to be tonight. Dark. Pretty good, yeah? My favorite saying is “A day without sunshine is like, you know, dark.” Now you know that I have a dark side.

Did you know that there is an easy way to tell the difference between a vegetarian and a meat eater? After these two people have been eaten, put them in a dark room with only a small window with sunlight shining through. You will find that the meat eater will be sleeping and the vegetarian will be leaning toward the sunlight.

We here at MHM have just started a new driving class. It’s a very short class but we guarantee the results. All you need is to bring your own car. There will be a passenger in the car with you. Oh, by the way, I would like to tell you that it’s a crash course and the passenger will be a crash dummy. So far, no one has signed up.

See you next month.

FYI: Rie Taketa, Office Secretary, will be away from office from Oct. 29th thru Nov. 10th. During this time, office will be opened during regular hours and manned by Rev. Kalu and volunteers.

The preschoolers at Makawao Hongwanji Pre-school welcomed the Fall Season with the tale of Johnny Appleseed. They love to listen to the story of how Johnny Appleseed planted apple seeds and shared apples with everyone. We used apples to make red painted apple prints on trees, used a flannel board to make apples hang from the apple tree, sliced an apple to see the seed and star of the core and ate Apples during snack time. At the end of the day each child received a red ripe apple to take home in their little homemade basket wearing a special Johnny Appleseed pot headband.

MAKAWAO HONGWANJI PRESCHOOL

State Dharma Educators' Conference

Innovative and exciting were the opinions of the conference held at the Ala Moana Hotel during the weekend of Oct. 11th and 12th. Oahu district sponsored the conference entitled "Engage the Dharma." Alison Nakagawa and Sharon Nagoshi represented Makawao.

The inspiring keynote speaker was James Koshiba whose work focuses on building community around island values and ideas. Presently, he is the organizer for Mindful Hawaii, promoting mindfulness across the islands. He addressed the idea of sharing without preaching. In order to do this, we need to understand what is our story, commitment, and vulnerability to outside sources.

Workshop sessions included 1) Learning the power of gratitude in ones life by Pieper Toyama, 2) BJ Soriano shared 4 new gathas, 3) Social Media content by Robin Dazzeo, and 4) A panel of young from the Buddhist Study Center Fellowship Club shared what interest them and their commitment to Buddhism. Emi Hashi (former Makawao Dharma School student) was part of the panel.

As part of the conference, each temple was asked to do a project to address its needs. Therefore, our proposed project is to create social media (facebook/instagram) accounts for our temple and post regularly events, dharma talks, Buddhist quotes, etc. Rev. Kalu has opened a Facebook account and already has had several "hits." He will continue to post information regularly. Hopefully this will increase visibility of our temple to the younger generation.

Kudos to Oahu District for sponsoring a very productive and engaging conference.

Dharma Stones: Sharon Nagoshi's Dharma School students painted these colorful rocks at the base of Shinran's statue.

KITCHEN PERMIT APPROVED FOR 2014-15

Our kitchen was inspected by the Department of Health recently and received its permit good thru June 2015. New policies for the kitchen include acknowledgment of all kitchen workers of Dept. of Health kitchen sanitation standards which are posted in the kitchen. All cooking and food preparation project coordinators who use the kitchen will need to have volunteer workers sign a DOH form prior to working in the kitchen.

MHM JUDO

On Saturday, October 4th, and Sunday, October 5th, our judo club participated in the 55th annual Honpa Hongwanji Judo Federation State Championship Tournament. This year, Puna Hongwanji was the host club, so we had to travel to the Big Island this time. We entered 24 contestants, ranging in age from 6 years old to 37 years old. Three instructors and many parents came along as well. This is a two day tournament, unlike any other judo tournament. This tournament is only open to members of judo clubs hosted by Hongwanji Missions throughout Hawaii. Currently there are nine member clubs participating in this annual event. Also, the format is different, in that it features three person Dantai (team) competition, as well as Kojin (individual) competition, and Kata (forms) competition. Our club entered the Dantai and Kojin categories only. Since the tournament is a Hongwanji sponsored event, there are church related aspects to it as well. The opening ceremonies include offering of incense from two members of each club and the resident minister offers an opening and closing prayer. Also, the opening ceremonies include a Boys Scouts Color Guard, followed by the singing of our national anthem. Two students from the host club recite the Dantai and Kojin fighting spirit creed. Some host clubs also include speeches from local and state politicians, encouraging the competitors to fight hard and clean. All of the above is unique to this tournament.

The host club for this tournament must provide food for a hospitality night, for the first night, and a banquet for the second night. This year we feasted on “all you can eat” kona crab, opakapaka, nabeta, and baby kahalas, among other treats. The banquet was above average and followed by many dessert treats. All in all, we ate well.

Competition is always tough in these tournaments. The following contestants placed from our club: Dantai: Womens open, first place. Michelle Hanada, Shuana Johnson, and Miyuki Patricio.

Kojin: Cade Yamada, 2nd, coed novice, 6yrs, Kamalei Cua, 1st, novice, coed, 109 lbs., Jarren Merritt, novice, 6 yrs., Brenden Hanada, 3rd, 9 yrs., 65 lbs., Kainoa Monkrees, 2nd, 10 yrs., 75 lbs., Brycen Hanada, 1st, 10 yrs., 91 + lbs., Aidan Hanley, 3rd, 10 yrs., 105 lbs., Nainoa Komoda-Maio, 1st, 13 yrs., 145 lbs., Chris Sobaje, 1st, 14 yrs., 145+ lbs., Colby Hanley, 1st, 15 yrs. , 105 lbs., Justin Davis, 3rd, open, 170lbs, Alyssa Fusato, 3rd, 14 yrs., 125 lbs., Miyuki Patricio, 1st, open, 125 lbs., Shuana Johnson, 2nd, open, 145 lbs., Michelle Hanada, 1st, open, 170 lbs.

This tournament is good for fostering fellowship and for making lifelong friends. It is a great opportunity to bond with competitors and leaders of other Hongwanji clubs. Each club takes turns hosting this prestigious tournament. Our club is going to be the host for next year. We will host on Labor Day weekend, Saturday, September, 5th, and Sunday, September 6th. The tournament site will be King Kekaulike High School, and the banquet will be at the Pukalani Community Center.

Since this event is too large to do by ourselves, we will ask help from the church for manpower in various committees, as well as community support, and from members of the Wailuku Hongwanji. Fortunately, our club is strong now, and we have many parents offering to help with crucial tasks. We will try to keep church members posted with updates as we go along.

Hi All - - Thank you very much for all your help with Sr. Fair Activity on October 25 at the War Memorial Gym. Special thanks to all of you.

As usual Makawao Hongwanji tables were empty within a couple of hours. Sanbaizuke, avocados, cut up pumpkin, pumpkin bread.

From Makawao Hongwanji Project Dana - - Thank You, Thank You Very Much for your donations and all your help.
